'60 Lark Wins Best of 21

This past summer this 1960 Lark Convertible owned by Jim and Andy Ringquist won a 'Best of 21' award at a Chevy's Best show in Eden Prairie. This was a nite time car show.

This picture was taken at Yellowstone Park. I believe we were on our way to the Studebaker International at Spokane, WA. We had a good trip and sa many nice Studebakers.

I hope you are making the transition from fall to winter. Remember, you can't fool Mothder Nature.

We've had a nice couple of monthly chapter meetings in October and November at restaurants in Roseville and are now looking forward to our next two fun and exciting big events (held again at the same places as last year). the Christmas Party is on Saturday, December 6 at Lord Fletchers on Lake Minnetonka. See the flyer and register today! Jim Ringquist says there is some cool stuff to be had. This is a very nice time and I hope you can join us.

Then early next year is the very important North Star Chapter Annual Meeting. It is set for Saturday, January 10th at the Horse and Hunt Club in Prior Lake. Please join us.

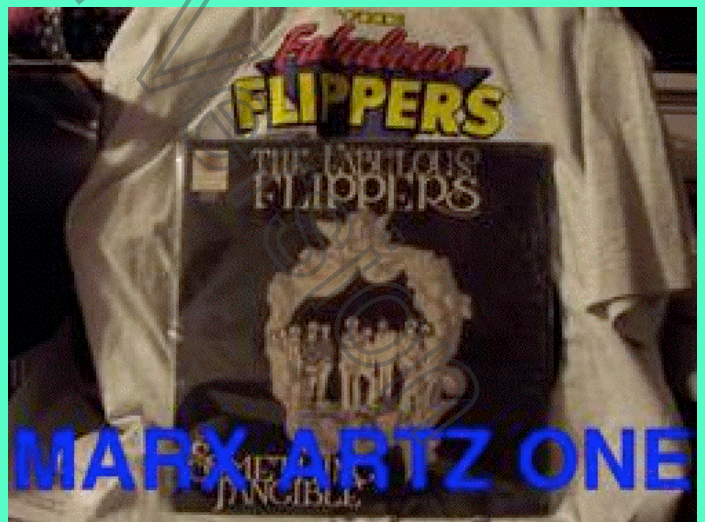

Besides having a nice dinner and conversation, this is our annual chapter business meeting where we hold elections for half of the club officers. Up for re-election this year are: one Board of Director, the Treasurer, and the President. Maynard Lemke has indicated he will run for the Board. Joan Lemke has indicated she will run again for Treasurer. And, I have indicated that I will run for one more term as President.

Have a great year!!
